

Third Sunday of Easter, 26th April, 2020

Today's Gospel, according to Luke, tells the story about the two disciples meeting Jesus on the road to Emmaus and how they recognised him at 'the breaking of the bread' This is one of the best known Bible stories and Luke tells it in the form of a little play, giving us all the details and conversation between the Risen Jesus and the two disciples.

Readings.

First Reading: Acts of the Apostles 2:14-23. Listen to my words.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalms 16:1-11. Response-Lord You will show us the path of Life.

Reflection - The Stranger at our Side

*All through life's day,
you walk with us Lord.
But often we don't recognise you,
for we are blinded by work and worry,
doubt, confusion and fear,
and so you remain a stranger to us.*

*Before the day's end we will ask many questions,
experience many sorrows and disappointments,
and then, suddenly,
whether we are young, middle-aged or old,
we will find that night is falling.*

*In that moment we pray,
that like the disciples on the road to Emmaus,
our eyes will be opened and that we will recognise you.*

*And you will not vanish from our sight,
but stay with us,
to guide us to the Father's house.*
